1.2 References to Writing

1.2.1 If a provision in these Regulations refers to a communication, notice, agreement or other document 'in writing' then, unless the contrary intention appears, it means in legible form and capable of being reproduced on paper, irrespective of the medium used. Expressions related to writing must be interpreted accordingly.

1.2.2 Regulation 1.2.1 does not affect any other legal requirements which may apply in relation to the form or manner of executing a document or agreement.

1.3 General interpretative provisions

1.3.1 Where reference is made in these Regulations to a statutory provision, it is a reference to the provision as amended, and includes a reference to that provision as extended or applied by or under any other provision, unless the contrary intention appears.

1.3.2 Unless the contrary intention appears:

- (a) words in these Regulations importing the masculine gender include the feminine and words importing the feminine gender include the masculine;
- (b) words in these Regulations in the singular include the plural and words in the plural include the singular; and
- (c) references to Chapters, Sections and Appendixes are to Chapters, Sections and Appendixes of these Regulations.

2. PURPOSE AND ACTIVITIES OF A SPECIAL PURPOSE COMPANY

2.1 Exempt Activities

The purpose of a Special Purpose Company as set out in the company's articles of association must be limited to Exempt Activities. A Special Purpose Company is prohibited from undertaking any activities other than Exempt Activities.

2.2 Financial Services

A Special Purpose Company may be used by (i) a Trustee of an Investment Trust, (ii) an Investment Company, or (iii) an Investment Partnership, to hold the property of the relevant Fund. A Special Purpose Company may not be (i) the Trustee of an Investment Trust, (ii) the general partner of an Investment Partnership, or (iii) an Investment Company. A Special Purpose Company shall not undertake any Financial Services unless it is authorised by the Dubai Financial Services Authority to do so.

2.3 Revocation of Status

If a Special Purpose Company undertakes any activities which are not Exempt Activities, the Registrar of Companies shall, after the giving of notice to the Special Purpose Company and the lapse of a reasonable grace period (to be determined in the sole discretion of the Registrar of Companies), be entitled to revoke the status of the company as a Special Purpose Company. If the status as a Special Purpose Company is thus revoked, the Special Purpose Company shall cease to be a Special Purpose Company and shall no longer be exempt by these Regulations but become subject to all provisions of the Laws.

3. SPECIAL PURPOSE COMPANY FORMATION AND REGISTRATION

3.1 Method of formation

3.1.1 For the purposes of Article 11(2) of the Companies Law 2006, the application filed with the Registrar of Companies shall also include a confirmation from the Incorporator that the Special Purpose Company will only undertake Exempt Activities.

3.1.2 For the purposes of Article 11(2)(d) of the Companies Law 2006, the minimum share capital required for a Special Purpose Company shall be USD 100 or multiples thereof.

3.1.3 The fees for the incorporation shall be payable as per Regulation 13 of these Regulations.

3.2 Articles of Association

- 3.2.1 For the purposes of Article 12 of the Companies Law 2006 and Regulation 2.4.1 of the Companies Regulations, a Special Purpose Company shall adopt the Standard Articles.
- 3.2.2 The Shareholders shall be entitled to modify the Standard Articles. The Registrar of Companies shall be entitled to object to any modification of the Standard Articles if these modifications are not in line with the status of a Special Purpose Company or its Exempt Activities.
- 3.2.3 Following any amendment of its Articles of Association, a Special Purpose Company shall file its amended Articles of Association with the Registrar of Companies within one month of the amendment. The Registrar of Companies shall be entitled to object to any amendment of the Articles of Association if such amendment is not in line with the status of a Special Purpose Company or its Exempt Activities.

3.3 Registration

- 3.3.1 Where an application for incorporation of a Special Purpose Company, fulfilling all conditions required for the application under (i) the Companies Law 2006 and the Companies Regulations (both as modified by these Regulations), and (ii) these Regulations, is made, the Registrar of Companies shall register the Special Purpose Company.
- 3.3.2 For the purposes of Article 13 of the Companies Law 2006 and Regulation 5.4.1 of the Companies Regulations, the Registrar of Companies shall maintain a separate register of Special Purpose Companies (the "Special Purpose Companies Register"). Special Purpose Companies shall be registered in the register of Companies and Recognised Companies and in the Special Purpose Companies Register.

3.3.3 For the purposes of Article 14 of the Companies Law 2006 and Regulation 2.5.1 of the Companies Regulations, the certificate of incorporation of a Special Purpose Company shall expressly set out the status of the company as a "Special Purpose Company".

3.4 Registered office and conduct of business

3.4.1 A Special Purpose Company shall receive corporate administration services from a Corporate Service Provider. A Special Purpose Company may receive administration services for its assets from a third party asset administration or management provider.

3.4.2 A Special Purpose Company shall at all times have a registered office in the DIFC to which all communications can be delivered by mail, email and fax.

3.4.3 Article 20(2) of the Companies Law 2006 and Regulation 2.1.4 of the Companies Regulations shall not apply to a Special Purpose Company. A Special Purpose Company will be considered to be carrying on its principal business within the DIFC.

3.4.4 A Special Purpose Company shall not require a commercial license.

4. SHARES

4.1 A Special Purpose Company shall not have more than three Shareholders. Every Shareholder must be:

4.1.1 a Nominee holding the shares in the Special Purpose Company on trust for discretionary purposes;

4.1.2 the Initiator or another participant in the Transaction; or

4.1.3 another Special Purpose Company.

4.2 If the shares of a Special Purpose Company are transferred to a person other than one specified in Regulation 4.1, the Special Purpose Company whose shares are transferred shall cease to be a Special Purpose Company and shall no longer be exempt by these Regulations but become subject to all provisions of the Laws.

4.3 Part 6 of the Companies Law 2006 shall not apply to a Special Purpose Company.

5. MEETINGS

5.1 For the purposes of Article 62 of the Companies Law 2006, a Special Purpose Company shall not be required to hold annual shareholder meetings.

6.2 The majority of directors of a Special Purpose Company shall be employees of its Corporate Service Provider.

6.3 The secretary of the Special Purpose Company shall be its Corporate Service Provider or any subsidiary of the Corporate Service Provider.

6.4 For the purposes of Regulation 4.2.1 of the Companies Regulations the Special Purpose Company shall file a notice of any change to its directors or its secretary within one month of the change of the director or secretary using the applicable form as prescribed by the Registrar of Companies.

7. ELECTRONIC FILING BY A SPECIAL PURPOSE COMPANY

7.1 A Special Purpose Company may file an application for incorporation via any electronic means.

7.2 For the purposes of Regulation 5.1.3(c) of Companies Regulations, Regulation 7.1 and any other filings made pursuant to the Companies Law, faxed and scanned signatures shall be considered valid when submitted by a Special Purpose Company provided that the Incorporator in the case of any filing made in connection with the formation of the Special Purpose Company or the Corporate Service Provider confirms in writing that originals will be delivered within one month of submission of faxed or scanned copies.

7.3 Where faxed or scanned documents are filed with the Registrar of Companies, the originals shall be delivered within one month of submission of faxed or scanned copies.

8. ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

A Special Purpose Company shall not be required to maintain, audit or file its accounts and Part 9 of the Companies Law 2006 and Regulation 6 of the Companies Regulations shall not apply to a Special Purpose Company, unless the Special Purpose Company has obtained a listing on any stock exchange of securities issued by it.

9. ANNUAL RETURN

Article 22 of the Companies Law 2006 and Regulation 10 of the Companies Regulations shall not apply to a Special Purpose Company.

10. REPORTING

10.1 In January each year after the year of its registration a Special Purpose Company shall furnish to the Registrar of Companies:

10.1.1 a confirmation that since its registration or previous reporting, as the case may be, there has been no amendment of its Articles of Association;

10.1.2 the annual fee as per Regulation 13 of these Regulations.

10.2 In addition to the reporting requirements set out in Regulation 3.2.3 and Regulation 6.4, the Special Purpose Company shall file a notice of any of the following changes within one month of the relevant change using the applicable form as prescribed by the Registrar of Companies:

10.2.1 any change to its registered office or office details (address, telephone number, fax number);

10.2.2 any change to its Shareholders;

10.2.3 any change to its name; or

10.2.4 any change in its principal business activities.

10.3 No provision of these Regulations shall be interpreted as to exempt a Special Purpose Company from the reporting requirements of any listing authority or rating agency involved in the Transaction.

11. DISSOLUTION OF A SPECIAL PURPOSE COMPANY

11.1 For the purposes of Article 128(1) of the Companies Law 2006, a Special Resolution for the voluntary winding up of a Special Purpose Company may only be passed if there are no outstanding liabilities of the Special Purpose Company.

11.2 The Registrar of Companies shall publish the fact of dissolution of a Special Purpose Company on the website of the DIFC.

12. FEES

For the purposes of Articles 148(3) and (4) of the Companies Law 2006 and Regulation 5.3.1 of the Companies Regulations, the fees in respect of matters set out in Appendix 1 of these Regulations shall be paid to the Registrar of Companies by the relevant person.

13. FINES

For the purposes of Article 132 of the Companies Law 2006 and Regulation 11 of the Companies Regulations, the penalties listed in Appendix 2 of these Regulations shall be in addition to the Schedule 2 of the Companies Law 2006.

14. INSOLVENCY LAW

14.1 For the purposes of a Special Purpose Company, "company's property" shall mean any property of the Special Purpose Company other than that property administered by an administrative receiver.

14.2 A Special Purpose Company shall not have any "preferential creditors", wherever such term is used in the Insolvency Law.
