- (1) The meaning and effect of the terms of a trust are:
 - (a) determined by the law of the jurisdiction expressed by the terms of the trust as the governing law; failing that
 - (b) to be implied from the terms of the trust; or failing either
 - (c) to be determined by the law with which the trust at the time it was created had the closest connection.

12. Provision for change of governing law

- (1) Where a term of a trust so provides, the governing law may be changed to or from the laws of the DIFC, in the manner prescribed by the terms of the trust, if:
 - (a) in the case of a change to the laws of the DIFC by a foreign trust, such change is recognised by the governing law previously in effect; or

- (b) in the case of a change from the laws of the DIFC, the new governing law would recognise the validity of the trust and either all the trusts, powers and provisions of the trust remain enforceable, capable of being exercised and so taking effect or, prior to the change, the trustee obtains the approval of the Court to the change.
- (2) Where the governing law of the trust changes to DIFC law, that trust shall be for all purposes a DIFC trust.
- (3) A change in the governing law shall not affect the legality or validity of, or render any person liable for, anything done before the change.

- (1) A trust is created if:
 - (a) the settlor has the capacity to create a trust;
 - (b) the settlor indicates an intention to create the trust;
 - (c) the trust either:
 - (i) has a definite beneficiary;
 - (ii) is a charitable trust, as provided for in Article 36; or
 - (iii) is a non-charitable purpose trust, as provided for in Article 37;
 - (d) the trustee holds or has vested in him or it property for the benefit of a beneficiary or for a purpose;
 - (e) the trustee has duties to perform; and
 - (f) the same person is not the sole trustee and sole beneficiary.
- (2) A beneficiary is definite if the beneficiary can be ascertained now or in the future.

- (3) A trust may have at the same time a definite beneficiary and a purpose.

35. Trust purposes

- (1) A trust may only be created to the extent its purposes are sufficiently certain to allow the trust to be carried out, lawful and not contrary to public policy in the DIFC.
- (2) A trust and its terms shall be for the benefit of its beneficiaries or in furtherance and support of its purposes.

36. Duration of a trust

- (1) A trust may continue indefinitely or terminate in accordance with this Law or with the terms of the trust.
- (2) No rule against perpetuities or excessive accumulations shall apply to a trust or to any advancement, appointment, payment or application of assets from a trust.
- (3) Except where the terms of a trust provide to the contrary, any advancement, appointment, payment or application of assets from that trust to another trust shall be valid even if that other trust may continue after the date by which the first trust must terminate.

37. Validity and invalidity of a trust

- (1) Subject to Articles 37(2), (3) and (4), a trust shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.
- (2) A trust shall be invalid to the extent that:
- (a) it purports to do anything which is contrary to DIFC Law;
 - (b) it is created for a purpose in relation to which there is no beneficiary, not being a charitable purpose, unless it complies with Article 39;
 - (c) its creation was induced by fraud, duress, undue influence or misrepresentation;
 - (d) the trust is immoral or contrary to public policy in the DIFC; or

- (e) the terms of the trust are so uncertain that its performance is rendered impossible.
- (3) Where a trust is created for two or more purposes of which some are lawful and others are unlawful:
 - (a) if those purposes cannot be separated the trust shall be invalid; or
 - (b) where those purposes can be separated the Court may declare that the trust is valid as to the purposes which are lawful.
- (4) A trust may be validly created which has beneficiaries, charitable purposes and purposes which are not charitable, in which case Article 38 shall apply in relation to the charitable purposes and Articles 38 and 39 shall apply in relation to the purposes which are not charitable.

38. Charitable trusts

- (1) A charitable trust may be created for the relief of poverty, the advancement of education or religion, the promotion of health or art, the protection of the environment, or any other purposes which are beneficial to the general public.
- (2) If the terms of a charitable trust do not indicate a particular charitable purpose or beneficiary or a means by which a particular charitable purpose or beneficiary may be selected, the Court may select one or more charitable purposes or beneficiaries in accordance with the settlor's intention to the extent it can be ascertained.
- (3) Subject to Article 38(4) if a particular charitable purpose becomes unlawful, impracticable, impossible to achieve, contrary to public policy in the DIFC, or obsolete in that, by reason of changed circumstances, it fails to achieve the purpose of the trust:
 - (a) the trust does not fail, in whole or in part;
 - (b) the trust property does not revert to the settlor or the settlor's successors in interest; and
 - (c) the Court may apply cy-près to vary or terminate the trust by directing that the trust property be applied or distributed, in whole or in part, to one or more charitable purposes or beneficiaries in accordance with the settlor's intention to the extent it can be ascertained and otherwise as the Court may direct.

- (4) A provision in the terms of a charitable trust that would result in distribution of the trust property to a non-charitable beneficiary prevails over the power of the Court under Article 38(3) to apply cy-près to vary or terminate the trust only if, when the provision takes effect, the trust property is to revert to the settlor and the settlor is still living.
- (5) A charitable trust may be enforced by the settlor of the trust, if the settlor is still living, maintaining a proceeding to enforce such trust or by the Court on the application of any of the settlor's heirs or the DIFCA or a person designated by it.

39. Non-charitable trusts or purpose trusts

- (1) A trust shall not be invalid by reason of Article 37(2)(b) if the terms of the trust provide for the appointment of an enforcer in relation to its non-charitable purposes and for the appointment of a new enforcer at any time when there is none.
- (2) Subject to Article 37(1), a trust may be declared by trust instrument for a non-charitable purpose, including the purpose of holding or investing in shares in a company or juridical person or any other assets constituting the trust property if:
 - (a) the purpose is possible and sufficiently certain to allow the trust to be carried out;
 - (b) the purpose is not contrary to public policy in the DIFC or unlawful under the laws of the DIFC; or
 - (c) the trust instrument specifies the event upon the happening of which the trust terminates and provides for the disposition of surplus assets of the trust upon its termination.
- (3) It shall be the duty of an enforcer to enforce the trust in relation to its non-charitable purposes.
- (4) The appointment of a person as enforcer of a trust in relation to its non-charitable purposes shall not have effect if he is also a trustee of the trust or has a conflict of interest.
- (5) Except as permitted by this Law or expressly provided by the terms of the trust, or with the approval of the Court an enforcer shall not:
 - (a) directly or indirectly profit from his appointment;
 - (b) cause or permit any other person to profit directly or indirectly from

- such appointment; or
- (c) on his own account enter into any transaction with the trustees or relating to the trust property which may result in profit to him or the trustee.
- (6) Subject to Article 39(7), an enforcer may resign his office by notice in writing delivered to the trustee. Such resignation shall take effect upon delivery of notice.
 - (7) A resignation given in order to facilitate a breach of trust shall be of no effect.
 - (8) An enforcer shall cease to be an enforcer of the trust in relation to its non-charitable purposes immediately upon:
 - (a) the enforcer's removal from office by the Court;
 - (b) the enforcer's resignation becoming effective;
 - (c) the coming into effect of a provision in the terms of a trust under which the enforcer is removed from office or otherwise ceases to hold office; or
 - (d) the enforcer's appointment as a trustee of the trust.
 - (9) A trustee of a trust for non-charitable purposes shall, at any time when there is no enforcer in relation to them, take such steps as may be necessary to secure the appointment of a new enforcer.
 - (10) Where the trustee of a trust for non-charitable purposes has reason to believe that the enforcer in relation to such purposes is unwilling or refuses to act, or is unfit to act or incapable of acting, he shall apply to the Court for the removal of the enforcer and the appointment of a replacement.
 - (11) The trustee shall apply to the Court for the appointment of a new enforcer where there is no provision for the appointment of a new enforcer in the trust instrument or the provisions in the trust instrument are not effective to secure the appointment of a new enforcer, or the enforcer is unwilling or refuses to act within 30 days of becoming aware that there is no enforcer willing and able to act.
 - (12) If the trustee does not make an application in accordance with Article 39(11), the Court may impose a fine on the trustee not exceeding 10 per centum of the value of the trust property.

40. Variation and revocation of a trust

- (1) A trust may expressly provide that:
 - (a) its terms are capable of variation; or
 - (b) the trust itself or a power exercisable under the trust is revocable either in whole or in part.

- (2) Unless the terms of a trust expressly provide that the trust is revocable, it shall be irrevocable.
- (3) Where a trust provides that the terms of the trust may be varied, such power to vary shall be without prejudice to the power vested in the Court by this Law for the variation of the terms of the trust.
- (4) No variation of the terms of the trust or revocation of a trust or a power exercisable under a trust shall prejudice anything lawfully done by a trustee in relation to a trust prior to his receiving a notice of such variation or revocation.
- (5) Subject to the terms of the trust, where a trust is revoked, either in whole or in part, the trustee shall hold the trust property affected by the revocation for the settlor absolutely or if the settlor is dead, for the settlor's personal representative or estate.
- (6) Where a power to revoke, a general power of appointment or the present beneficial interest in respect of all or part of the trust property is reserved or granted to a person, the trust instrument may provide that for so long as the settlor, beneficiary or other holder of the power is not the sole trustee, the trustee shall owe no duty to any other person in relation to all or such part of the trust property and accordingly shall have no responsibility to any other person for acts or omissions occurring during that person's lifetime in respect of that property.
- (7) For the purposes of this Article, the "settlor" is the particular person who provided the property which is the subject of revocation.
- (8) The Court may vary the terms of a trust:
 - (a) even if unambiguous, to conform the terms to the settlor's intention if it is provided by clear and convincing evidence that both the settlor's intent and the terms of the trust were affected by a mistake of fact or law, whether in expression or inducement;
 - (b) if, because of circumstances not anticipated by the settlor, modification will further the purpose of the trust; ~~or~~
 - (c) if continuation of the trust on its existing terms would be impractical or wasteful or impair the administration of the trust;

with effect from either the date the order for variation of the trust was made or such earlier date as to the Court seems fit.

- (9) To achieve the settlor's tax objectives in relation to any jurisdiction to which the trust or settlor may be subject, the Court may vary the terms of a trust in a manner that is not contrary to the settlor's probable intention. The Court may provide that the variation has retroactive effect.

- (10) An application under Article 40(6) may be made by the settlor, the trustee, the beneficiary or the guardian or representative of a beneficiary who is a minor, incapacitated, unascertained or unborn.

41. Power of Court to authorise dealings with trust property

- (1) Where, in the management or administration of any trust property, any sale, lease, mortgage, surrender, release or other disposition, or any purchase, investment, acquisition, expenditure or other transaction, is in the opinion of the Court expedient, but the same cannot be effected by reason of the absence of any power for that purpose vested in the trustee by the trust instrument, if any, or by law, the Court may, by order, confer upon the trustee, either generally or in any particular instance, the necessary power for that purpose, on such terms, and subject to such provision and conditions, if any, as the Court may think fit, and may direct in what manner any money authorised to be expended, and the costs of any transaction, are to be paid or borne as between capital and income.
- (2) The Court may make an order under this Article at a time after the dealing has commenced or is completed.
- (3) The Court may, from time to time, rescind or vary any order made under this Article, or may make any new or further order.

42. Failure or lapse of interest

- (1) Subject to the terms of a trust and to any order of the Court, the trust property or interest under the trust shall be held by the trustee for the settlor absolutely or if the settlor is dead, for the settlor's personal representatives or estate where:

- (2) The Court may terminate a trust:
- (a) because of circumstances not anticipated by the settlor, if termination will further the purposes of the trust; or
 - (b) if the value of the trust property is insufficient to justify the cost of administration.
- (3) An application to the Court under this Article may be made by a settlor, a trustee or a beneficiary as the case may be.

44. Distribution of property

- (1) Without prejudice to the powers of the Court under Article 44(3), on the termination of the trust the trustee shall distribute the trust property to the persons entitled thereto within a reasonable time and in accordance with the terms of the trust.

- (3) Pending a final decision on a request to remove a trustee, or in lieu of or in addition to removing a trustee, the Court may order an appropriate relief under Article 74.

 - (d) where the responsible trustee is of opinion that any advice or direction of an advisory trustee conflicts with the trusts or any rule of law, or exposes him to any liability, or is otherwise objectionable, he may apply to the Court for directions in the matter, and any decision and order therein shall be final and shall bind the responsible trustee and the advisory trustee, and the Court may make such order as to costs as appears proper; but nothing in this Article makes it necessary for the responsible trustee to apply to the Court for any such directions; and
 - (e) where there are two or more advisory trustees who are not unanimous, and tender to the responsible trustee conflicting advice or directions, the responsible trustee may apply to the Court for directions in like manner and with like effect as provided by Article 57(3)(d).
- (4) A person dealing with the responsible trustee in relation to any trust property shall not be concerned to inquire as to the concurrence or otherwise of the advisory trustees or be affected by notice of the fact that the advisory trustees have not concurred.
