PART 1: GENERAL1. Title

This Law may be cited as the “Foundations Law 2017” or “this Law”.

2. Legislative authority

This Law is made by the Ruler.

3. Application of the Law

This Law applies in the jurisdiction of the Dubai International Financial Centre.

4. Scope of the Law

This Law applies to:

- (a) any Foundation established in accordance with this Law;
- (b) any Registered Foreign Foundation to the extent stated in Article 65; or
- (c) any Foreign Foundation which is established in another jurisdiction which has transferred its registration to the DIFC in accordance with this Law.

5. Date of Enactment

This Law is enacted on the date specified in the enactment notice in respect of this Law.

6. Commencement

This Law comes into force on the date specified in the enactment notice in respect of this Law.

7. Schedules

- (1) Schedule 1 contains:
 - (a) interpretative provisions which apply to this Law; and
 - (b) a list of defined terms used in the Law.
- (2) Schedule 3 contains prescribed fines for contravention of this Law.

8. Administration of this Law

This Law is administered by the DIFCA.

9. Regulations

- (1) The Board of Directors of the DIFCA may make Regulations to facilitate the administration of, or further the objects of, this Law.
- (2) Articles 181 and 182 of the Companies Law apply to the making of Regulations under this Law.

PART 2: NATURE OF A DIFC FOUNDATION10. Nature of a Foundation

- (1) A Foundation is a body corporate with a legal personality separate from that of its Founder(s) and any other person.
- (2) The property of a Foundation is not held by it upon trust for any other person.
- (3) A Founder has such rights (if any) in respect of a Foundation as provided for in its By-laws.
- (4) A person specified in the By-laws (other than a Founder, a member of the Council, the Registered Agent and any Guardian) has such rights (if any) in respect of a Foundation as provided for in its By-laws.
- (5) Any rights a person may have in respect of a Foundation may be assigned to some other person, if its By-laws so provide.
- (6) If rights are assigned under Article 10(5), the person assigning the rights must within a period of thirty (30) days provide a copy of the assignment to the Registered Agent or, if there is no Registered Agent, to the Registrar.

11. Duration of a Foundation

- (1) A Foundation may, but need not, be established for a fixed period or for a specified limited period, provided that it may be dissolved at an earlier time in accordance with the provisions of this Law.
- (2) If a Foundation is to be wound up and dissolved upon:
 - (a) the happening of some event; or
 - (b) the expiration of a fixed period of time,the details of the event or period must be specified in its By-laws.
- (3) If a person is to have the right to wind up and dissolve a Foundation, the details of such right must be specified in its By-laws, subject to any right arising under any applicable law.

12. Objects and categories of Foundations

- (1) A Foundation's objects:
 - (a) must be certain, reasonable and possible; and
 - (b) must not be unlawful or contrary to public policy in the DIFC.
- (2) A Foundation may be established for any one, or any combination, of the following objects:
 - (a) objects which are exclusively charitable;
 - (b) objects which are not charitable; or
 - (c) in order to provide benefits to persons identified in its Charter or By-laws.

- (3) It is sufficient, for purposes of Article 12(1)(b), for the Charter to provide that a Foundation is to hold property selected in accordance with its By-laws.
- (4) It is sufficient, for purposes of Article 12(1)(c), for the Charter to provide that a person or class of persons to receive benefits may be determined in accordance with the By-laws.
- (5) A Foundation may not carry out any commercial activities, except those necessary for, and ancillary or incidental to, its objects.
- (6) The objects of a Foundation may be only amended:
 - (a) where there is an express power to do so in the Charter; or
 - (b) by order of the Court.
- (7) If there is no express power to amend the objects in a Foundation's Charter then, subject to Articles 12(1) and 12(2), an object may be amended by order of the Court where:
 - (a) the object has been, as far as may be, fulfilled;
 - (b) the object cannot be carried out, inclusive of where it cannot be carried out in accordance with its original intention or spirit in which the Foundation was established;
 - (c) the object provides a use for part only of the property of the Foundation;
 - (d) the object was laid down by reference to a class of persons or to a matter which has for any reason since ceased to be:
 - (i) suitable; or
 - (ii) practicable in administering the Foundation;
 - (e) in the case of a charitable object, the object has ceased to be charitable (by being useless or harmful to the community or otherwise); or
 - (f) the object has ceased in any other way to provide a suitable and effective method of using the property of the Foundation, and, in these cases, the property, or the remainder of the property, as the case may be, shall be held for such other charitable or non-charitable object as the Court may order to be consistent with the original intention of the Founder(s), or the spirit in which the Foundation was established.

- (8) An application to the Court pursuant to Article 12(7) may be brought by any one of:
 - (a) the DIFCA;
 - (b) the Council of the Foundation; or
 - (c) any other Person with Sufficient Interest, upon notice to the Founder(s) (if still alive), the Guardian (if any), the Council and (if applicable) any other Person with Sufficient Interest.

13. Matters determined by DIFC law

- (1) Subject to Article 13(2), all matters arising in regard to a Foundation or in regard to any disposition of property to or by a Foundation, including questions as to:
 - (a) the capacity of a Founder or Contributor;
 - (b) any aspect of the validity of the disposition or the interpretation or effect thereof;
 - (c) the administration of the Foundation (whether the administration be conducted in the DIFC or elsewhere), including questions as to the powers, obligations, liabilities and rights of the officers of the Foundation and their appointment and removal; or
 - (d) the existence and extent of powers, conferred or retained, including powers of variation of the Charter or By-laws or dissolution of the Foundation, and the validity of any exercise thereof, shall be determined in accordance with the laws of the DIFC without reference to the laws of any other jurisdictions with which the Foundation or disposition may be connected.

- (2) Subject to Articles 14,15 and 16, Article 13(1) shall:
 - (a) not validate any disposition of property which is neither owned by a Founder or Contributor, nor is the subject of a power vested in a Founder or Contributor;
 - (b) not validate any trust or disposition of immovable property situated in a jurisdiction other than DIFC in which such trust or disposition is invalid according to the laws of such jurisdiction;
 - (c) not validate any testamentary trust or disposition which is invalid according to the laws of the testator's last domicile;
 - (d) not affect the recognition of foreign laws in determining whether a Founder or Contributor is or was the owner of any property transferred to the Foundation or is or was the holder of a power to dispose of such property;
 - (e) not affect the recognition of the laws of its place of incorporation in relation to the capacity of a corporation; and
 - (f) not affect the recognition of foreign laws prescribing generally, without reference to the existence or the establishment of the Foundation, the formalities for the disposition of property within the jurisdiction of those foreign laws.

14. Limitations in foreign law

- (1) Without limiting the generality of Article 13(1), no disposition of property to a Foundation that is valid under the laws of the DIFC is void, voidable, liable to be set aside or defective in any manner by reference to a foreign law; nor is the capacity of any Founder in relation to the Foundation or disposition to be questioned nor is the Foundation or any other person to be subjected to any liability or deprived of any power or right, by reason that:

- (a) the laws of any foreign jurisdiction prohibit or do not recognise the concept of a foundation;
 - (b) the disposition voids or defeats any rights, claims or interests conferred by foreign law upon any person by reason of a personal relationship to a founder or any other person related to the foundation or by way of heirship rights or contravenes any rule of foreign law or any foreign, judicial or administrative order, arbitration award or action intended to recognise, protect, enforce or give effect to any such rights, claims or interests; or
 - (c) the foreign law or foreign judicial or administrative order or arbitration award or imposes any obligation or liability on a founder, foundation or any other party in relation to the foundation or the property of the foundation.
- (2) Subject to Article 14(3), a transfer of property to a Foundation shall not be void, voidable or liable to be set aside by reason of a Founder or a Contributor's bankruptcy, the liquidation of a Founder or Contributor, or any action or claims made against a Founder or Contributor by any creditor, notwithstanding any foreign statute providing otherwise.
- (3) Notwithstanding Article 14(2), where the Court determines that, at the time when the property was transferred to a Foundation, a Founder or Contributor, as applicable, was insolvent or intended to defraud any creditor of a Founder or Contributor, as applicable, it may declare that the transfer of property was void to the extent of the creditor's claim.
- (4) In making claims to set aside transfers of property to a Foundation under Article 14(3), the burden of proof shall rest with the creditor.

15. Heirship rights

An heirship right conferred by foreign law in relation to the property of a living person shall not be recognised as:

- (a) affecting the ownership of immovable property in the DIFC and movable property wherever it is situated for the purposes of Article 13(2)(a) and (b) or for any other purpose; or
- (b) constituting an obligation or liability for any purpose.

16. Foreign Judgments

A foreign judgment shall not be recognised or enforced or give rise to any estoppels insofar as it is inconsistent with Articles 14 and 15.

PART 3: ESTABLISHMENT OF A DIFC FOUNDATION17. Creation

- (1) The Founder(s) may apply for the establishment of a Foundation by signing and filing with the Registrar an application for its establishment in the manner prescribed by the Registrar.
- (2) The application filed with the Registrar under Article 17(1) shall be signed by each Founder and shall include:
 - (a) the name of the proposed Foundation;
 - (b) the address of the proposed Foundation's registered office in the DIFC;
 - (c) the full name, nationality and address of each Founder;
 - (d) the full name, nationality and address of each of the proposed members of the Council of the proposed Foundation;
 - (e) the Charter of the proposed Foundation;
 - (f) if applicable, the name and business address of the proposed Registered Agent in the DIFC;
 - (g) unless a Registered Agent is proposed to be appointed, the By-laws of the proposed Foundation; and
 - (h) such other particulars as the Registrar may require.
- (3) The provisions of Article 21 of the Companies Law shall apply to a Foundation in respect of the use of misleading, deceptive or conflicting names.
- (4) A person may not be named as a Registered Agent unless that person is a Qualified Person.
- (5) Upon lodgment of the application and payment of the prescribed fee, the Registrar shall either:
 - (a) register the Foundation;
 - (b) seek further information in respect of the proposed Foundation; or
 - (c) refuse the application.
- (6) On the registration of a Foundation, the Registrar shall:
 - (a) issue a certificate that the Foundation is established and such certificate shall expressly set out its status as a Foundation;
 - (b) assign to the Foundation a number, which shall be the Foundation's registered number; and
 - (c) issue a Licence in its favour.
- (7) The provisions of Article 17 of the Companies Law apply to a Licence issued to a Foundation.

18. Constitution

The constitution of a Foundation comprises:

- (a) its Charter, and
- (b) subject to Article 20(4), its By-laws.

19. Charter

- (1) A Foundation must have a Charter which shall be in the English language.
- (2) The Charter of a Foundation must contain the following:
 - (a) its name;
 - (b) the object(s);
 - (c) a description of the initial capital;
 - (d) the duration of the Foundation (if it is to subsist for a limited period only); and
 - (e) a declaration by each Founder requesting the Council to comply with the terms of the Charter.
- (3) The Charter may contain any matter:
 - (a) that is otherwise required or permitted to be in the By-laws in accordance with Article 20; or
 - (b) that the Founder(s) think fit,provided that there is no provision which is contrary to or inconsistent with this Law or the Regulations.
- (4) The Charter may be amended only if:
 - (a) the Charter so provides; or
 - (b) the Court so orders under Article 44.
- (5) Where a Charter specifies an exclusively charitable object, it may not provide for the amendment of the Charter so as to specify a non-charitable object in place of the charitable object.
- (6) Each Founder must subscribe to the Charter, by signing it in his own name or, if a Founder is a corporation, by executing it under its common seal.
- (7) The Board of Directors of the DIFCA may prescribe in the Regulations model provisions to be known as the “Standard Charter”, and a Foundation may, for its Charter, adopt the whole or any part thereof as are applicable to that Foundation.
- (8) If a Foundation proposes to amend its Charter, it must after completing its internal processes necessary to amend the Charter, lodge the amended Charter with the Registrar within a period of thirty (30) days after such amendment.
- (9) The amended Charter shall come into force upon it being registered by the Registrar, and, if the change involves a change of name, upon the issue of a certificate by the Registrar pursuant to Article 34(1).

20. By-laws

- (1) The By-laws must:
 - (a) prescribe the functions of the Council;
 - (b) detail the procedures for the appointment, resignation and removal of members of the Council and any Guardian;
 - (c) if the members of the Council or any Guardian are to be remunerated, the details in respect thereof;
 - (d) set out how the decisions of the Council are to be made and, if any decision requires the approval of any other person, specify the decisions and that person;
 - (e) if the functions of the Council must or may be delegated or exercised in conjunction with any other person, the extent to which this must or may be done; and
 - (f) specify what is to happen to any property of the Foundation that remain should the Foundation be wound up and dissolved.
- (2) The By-laws may:
 - (a) prescribe the manner in which the property of the Foundation may be distributed, accumulated or applied;
 - (b) detail whether, and if so how, further property may be endowed upon the Foundation;
 - (c) provide for the addition or removal of a person or class of persons as recipients or for the exclusion from the category of recipient of a person or class of persons, either revocably or irrevocably;
 - (d) detail any person's powers in relation to the Foundation (including, but not limited to, the power to appoint or remove any official, to take investment decisions or to approve the use of property);
 - (e) impose obligations upon recipients as a condition of receipt of any amount from the Foundation;
 - (f) make the potential right of a recipient in relation to a receipt from the Foundation:
 - (i) liable to termination;
 - (ii) subject to a restriction on alienation or dealing; or
 - (iii) subject to diminution or termination in the event of the recipient becoming bankrupt;
 - (g) detail the name and address of a default recipient, failing which the default recipient shall be the DIFCA; and

- (h) contain any other matter that the Founder(s) deem fit.
- (3) The By-laws may be amended only if:
 - (a) the Charter so provides, or
 - (b) the Court so orders under Article 44.
- (4) To the extent to which matters required or authorised to be in the By-laws under Article 19(1) are contained within the Charter, such matters need not also be in the By-laws, and if all of the matters in Articles 19(1) and (2) are contained in the Charter, a Foundation need not have any By-laws.
- (5) The Board of Directors of the DIFCA may prescribe in the Regulations model provisions to be known as the “Standard By-laws”, and a Foundation may adopt the whole or any part thereof as are applicable to that Foundation.
- (6) The Registered Agent, or the Registrar if there is no Registered Agent, shall be notified of any change to the By-laws and a copy of the amended By-laws shall be provided to the Registered Agent or filed with the Registrar, whichever is applicable, within thirty (30) days of such change.

21. Default recipient

- (1) The Charter or By-laws may identify a default recipient to whom all property of a Foundation for which provision has not otherwise been made shall pass in the event of the termination thereof.
- (2) Unless otherwise provided in the Charter or By-laws, a default recipient is not entitled to information about the Foundation, and has no rights in respect of it.
- (3) If:
 - (a) no default recipient is named in the Charter or By-laws; or
 - (b) any such default recipient no longer exists,

any property of a Foundation existing at its termination shall, unless the Charter or By-laws provides otherwise, become property of the DIFCA.

22. Council

- (1) A Foundation must have a Council to administer its property and to carry out its objects.
- (2) Subject to the terms of the Charter or Bylaws, the Council shall comprise at least two (2) members.
- (3) A Founder or a body corporate may be appointed as a member of the Council.
- (4) A member of the Council:
 - (a) must be so named in the Register;
 - (b) must ensure that the Council keeps accurate Accounting Records for the Foundation; and

- (c) must comply with the provisions of this Law, the Charter and By-laws.
- (5) A person must not be appointed as a member of a Council, or be so referred to in the Register, unless he has consented in writing to being a member of the Council.
- (6) The appointment of a person as a member of a Council is void and will have no effect if that person is also a Guardian of the Foundation.
- (7) The members of a Council must conduct the Foundation's affairs in accordance with its Charter and By-laws, this Law and any other applicable law.
- (8) A Council member must:
 - (a) act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Foundation; and
 - (b) exercise the care, diligence and skill that reasonably prudent persons would exercise in comparable circumstances.
- (9) The duty under Article 22(8)(a) is fiduciary in nature.
- (10) An act of a member of the Council of a Foundation is valid despite any defect that may afterwards be found in:
 - (a) the appointment of the member; or
 - (b) the member's qualifications.
- (11) The Registrar must be notified of the details of any change in the membership of a Foundation's Council within thirty (30) days of the occurrence of the change.

23. Guardian

- (1) If a Foundation has a charitable object, or a specified non-charitable object, the Foundation must have a Guardian in relation to that object.
- (2) A Foundation may, but need not, have a Guardian in respect of an object to provide some or all of its property to a person or class of persons:
 - (a) whether or not immediately ascertainable; or
 - (b) ascertained by reference to a personal relationship.
- (3) A Founder or a body corporate may be appointed as Guardian of a Foundation.
- (4) A Guardian:
 - (a) must be so named in the Register;
 - (b) must keep and retain accurate accounts and records of his guardianship for so long as his guardianship subsists and for a period of six (6) years thereafter; and
 - (c) must comply with the provisions this Law, the Charter and the By-laws.

- (5) A person must not be appointed as a Guardian, or be so referred to in the Register, unless he has consented in writing to being the Guardian of the Foundation.
- (6) The appointment of a person as Guardian is void and shall have no effect if the person is also a member of the Council of the Foundation.
- (7) The Guardian must take reasonable steps to ensure that the Council of the Foundation carries out its functions.
- (8) Accordingly, the Guardian may require the Council to account to the Guardian for the way in which it has:
 - (a) administered the Foundation's property; and
 - (b) acted to further the Foundation's objects.
- (9) The By-laws may give a Guardian the power to approve or disapprove any specified actions of the Council.
- (10) Except to the extent that the By-laws provide otherwise, a Guardian may sanction or authorise any action taken or to be taken by the Council that would not otherwise be permitted by the By-laws if the Guardian considers that it is appropriate to do so.
- (11) However, the Guardian must not sanction or authorise any action taken or to be taken by the Council unless he is satisfied:
 - (a) that it is in the best interests of the Foundation; and
 - (b) that the Council has acted, or will be acting, in good faith.
- (12) If a Guardian sanctions or authorises any action of the Council under Article 23(10), the Council, in taking that action, may be presumed by third parties to have acted in good faith.
- (13) Nothing in Article 23(10) is to be construed as permitting a Guardian to sanction or to authorise any action taken or to be taken by the Council that would be inconsistent with this Law or any other applicable law.

24. The Registered Agent

- (1) A Foundation may, but need not, have a Registered Agent.
- (2) The Registered Agent of a Foundation:
 - (a) must be appointed in accordance with this Law; and
 - (b) has, in respect of the Foundation, the functions specified in this Law and the By-laws.
- (3) On the establishment of a Foundation, the proposed Registered Agent named under Article 17(2)(f) becomes the Registered Agent of the Foundation.
- (4) Details of any change of the Registered Agent must be provided to the Registrar within thirty (30) days of the occurrence of the change.
- (5) A Foundation may not have more than one Registered Agent at any time.

25. The members of the Council and others – liability

- (1) This Article applies to a person appointed under the Charter or By-laws of a Foundation when acting or purporting to be acting in the course of that appointment.
- (2) Nothing:
 - (a) in the Charter or By-laws; or
 - (b) in a contract between the Foundation and a person to whom this Article applies,relieves, releases or excuses that person from any liability for fraud, wilful misconduct or gross negligence.
- (3) Any insurance purchased and maintained by the Foundation in respect of a person to whom this Article applies must not include insurance in respect of any liability the person may incur:
 - (a) to the Foundation; or
 - (b) to pay a fine in respect of an offence; or
 - (c) any costs the person may incur:
 - (i) in defending criminal proceedings in which the person is convicted; or
 - (ii) in defending civil proceedings brought by the Foundation in which judgment is given against the person.

26. Reservation to Founder of powers to amend, revoke, vary or terminate.

- (1) Subject to Article 26(2), a Founder may not reserve to himself any powers to amend, revoke or vary the Charter or By-laws or to terminate the Foundation.
- (2) A Founder may reserve the following powers:
 - (a) a power to amend, revoke or vary the terms of the Charter or By-laws, or both of them, in whole or in part;
 - (b) subject to Article 12(2), a power to amend, revoke or vary the objects of the Foundation, in whole or in part; and
 - (c) a power to terminate the Foundation,provided that the power to amend, revoke, vary or terminate, as the case may be, is detailed in full in the Charter, and provided that these powers are only reserved:
 - (i) for a period not exceeding the duration of a Founder's life, if he is a natural person; or
 - (ii) for a period not exceeding fifty (50) years from the date of establishment of the Foundation, if the Founder is a legal person, and thereafter any such powers so reserved shall lapse, notwithstanding the terms of the Charter.

- (3) If, at any time in respect of a Foundation:
- (a) any power has been reserved or granted under Article 26(1) to more than one Founder; and
 - (b) more than one Founder is capable of exercising it at that time,
- then such power must be exercised by those Founders unanimously unless the Charter provides otherwise.

PART 4: PROPERTY OF A FOUNDATION27. Capital endowment

- (1) The initial capital of a Foundation is the capital endowed upon the Foundation in order that the Foundation may be established.
- (2) The initial capital may comprise any property, and may be provided by way of gift or for valuable consideration.
- (3) Following the endowment of the initial capital, further property may be endowed upon the Foundation by any person if the Charter so permits.
- (4) A Founder does not have any interest in a Foundation by virtue only of endowing it with its initial capital or further property or otherwise by virtue of being a Founder thereof.
- (5) No person has any interest in a Foundation, or is a Founder of a Foundation, by virtue only of endowing it with further property in accordance with Article 27(3).

28. Financial Resources

The property of a Foundation shall consist of:

- (a) the initial capital of the Foundation;
- (b) any further amount endowed upon the Foundation and accepted by its Council;
- (c) the proceeds of investment of the capital of the Foundation;
- (d) any other property acquired by its Council in accordance with the Law and Regulations.

29. Qualified recipients

- (1) A Foundation's By-laws may provide for the distribution of property of the Foundation to Qualified Recipients.
- (2) A Qualified Recipient shall be one or more of the following:
 - (a) a person holding an entitlement specified in, or pursuant to, the By-laws to a fixed share of the property and income of the Foundation when the Foundation distributes it;
 - (b) a person holding a depository receipt;
 - (c) a person who is a prospective recipient of a fixed, or discretionary, share of the property of the Foundation upon the happening of a future event specified in the By-laws;
 - (d) a person who is nominated pursuant to the By-laws to be a recipient of a fixed, or discretionary, share of the property and income of the Foundation at a time following the establishment of the Foundation;
 - (e) a charity; and

- (f) a default recipient.
- (3) A Qualified Recipient has no right to or interest in the property of the Foundation other than a right to payment of amounts which arises by virtue of the terms of the By-laws or pursuant to the By-laws, or a contract with the Foundation, including a contract in relation to a depository receipt.
- (4) If:
 - (a) a Qualified Recipient becomes entitled to receive an amount from a Foundation in accordance with the Charter or the By-laws; and
 - (b) the amount is not provided,the Qualified Recipient, or a person acting on behalf of the Qualified Recipient, may seek an order of the Court ordering the Foundation to pay the amount.
- (5) Except as provided by Article 29(6), a Qualified Recipient must seek an order pursuant to Article 29(4) within the period of three (3) years from the time when the Qualified Recipient became aware of the entitlement to receive the amount.
- (6) If the beneficiary has not attained the age of 18 years when he or she became aware of his or her entitlement to receive the amount, the period referred to in Article 29(5) begins to run on the day on which the beneficiary attains that age.

30. Depository receipts

- (1) A Foundation may issue securities, including depository receipts, representing specific rights to payment quantified by reference to specific parts of the property owned by the Foundation or relating to other rights or interests, whether present or future, to which the Foundation is or might be entitled.
- (2) Any such securities issued by a Foundation may be subscribed for or issued in favour of any individual or legal entity.
- (3) The Foundation retains full ownership of the properties and full entitlement to the rights or interest in any property in respect of which it issued securities under Article 30(1).
- (4) Any payments to holders of securities issued pursuant to Article 30(1) shall be made in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the By-laws, or agreed to by the Foundation in accordance with procedures contained in the By-laws.
- (5) In case of securities issued in connection with shares or other securities held by the Foundation, the Foundation shall retain any voting rights that may be attached to the securities it owns, unless the terms and conditions of the securities concerned expressly provide otherwise.

31. Limitation to the transferability of rights in respect of a Foundation

- (1) Unless otherwise provided in the By-laws, the right to receive payments from a Foundation are transferable.
- (2) The By-laws may limit the right to transfer a right to payment to one or all of the following cases:
 - (a) the transferee is already an holder of certificates or depository receipts of the same kind as those object of transfer, and issued by the same Foundation;

- (b) the transferee is a Founder;
- (c) the transferee is a Qualified Recipient of the Foundation;
- (d) the transferee is a legal entity or a natural person acting in the name or on behalf of one of the persons indicated under Articles 31(2)(a), (b) or (c).

PART 5: ADMINISTRATION OF DIFC FOUNDATIONS32. Registered office and conduct of business

- (1) A Foundation shall at all times have a registered office in the DIFC to which all communications and notices may be delivered.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of Article 12(5), a Foundation shall carry on its activities in the DIFC and elsewhere as permitted by law.
- (3) A document may be served on a Foundation by leaving it at, or sending it by post to, the registered office of the Foundation.

33. Particulars in correspondence and other communications

Subject to the Law, the name of a Foundation and its registered number shall appear in legible characters on the common seal of the Foundation, and on every business letter, statement of account, invoice, official notice, publication or any other instrument issued by the Foundation, including communications through electronic means.

34. Change of name

- (1) Where a Foundation changes its name under Article 19(4), the Registrar shall enter the new name on the Register in place of the former name, and shall issue a certificate of name change showing the previous name and the new name of the Foundation, provided that any such name change shall also be subject to Article 17(3).
- (2) The name change will take effect from the date on which the Registrar issues the certificate of name change.
- (3) A change of name by a Foundation under this Law does not affect any rights or obligations of the Foundation or render defective any legal proceedings by or against it and any legal proceedings that might have been continued or commenced against it by its former name may be continued or commenced under its new name.

35. Accounts and Accounting Records

- (1) Unless inconsistent with this Article 35, Articles 127 to 131 of the Companies Law shall apply to a Foundation, as if it were a private company and any reference to “Director(s)” or “Officer(s)” in relevant Articles in the Companies Law shall be interpreted to refer to member(s) of the Council.
- (2) A Foundation’s accounts shall be approved by the Council and signed on their behalf by at least two members of the Council.
- (3) A Foundation shall within thirty days (30) after the accounts have been approved by the Council:
 - (a) if it has not appointed a Registered Agent, file a copy of its annual accounts with the Registrar; or
 - (b) if it has appointed a Registered Agent, provide a copy of its annual accounts to its Registered Agent.

PART 6: REGISTRAR36. Exercise of functions of the Registrar

- (1) The Registrar shall administer this Law on behalf of the DIFCA.
- (2) In the exercise of his functions under this Law, the Registrar has all the powers and duties conferred upon him by:
 - (a) Articles 8 and 9 of the Companies Law; and
 - (b) Articles 158 to 168 of the Companies Law, including the power of delegation.
- (3) In exercising any powers and duties conferred upon the Registrar in Article 36(2), any reference to “Director(s)” or “Officer(s)” shall be interpreted as referring to member(s) of the Council.

37. Register to be kept and made available for public inspection

- (1) The Registrar must keep a Register for the purposes of this Law.
- (2) The Register must include the information contained in Articles 17(2)(a) to (f), inclusive of the details of any changes filed with the Registrar.
- (3) The Registrar must, on payment of any prescribed fee, make the Register available for public inspection at any reasonable time.
- (4) On payment of any prescribed fee, the Registrar must supply a person with a certificate stating whether or not a named body is a Foundation and, if it is, the following details as they appear in the Register:
 - (a) the date of its establishment;
 - (b) its registration number;
 - (c) if applicable, the name and business address of the Registered Agent in the DIFC; and
 - (d) the registered office of the Foundation in the DIFC.
- (5) On payment of any prescribed fee, the Registrar must supply a person with a certified copy of the Charter of a Foundation as included in the Register.
- (6) The following documents are admissible in evidence in legal proceedings:
 - (a) a certificate supplied by the Registrar under Article 37(4); or
 - (b) a certified copy of the Charter of a Foundation supplied under Article 37(5).

38. Keeping of records by Registrar

- (1) A record delivered to the Registrar under this Law may be kept by the Registrar in any form:
 - (a) that is approved by the Board of Directors of the DIFCA; and

- (b) that is capable of being reproduced in a legible form.
- (2) The Registrar is to be taken to have complied with an obligation to keep a record if he has complied with Article 38(1) in respect of the record.
- (3) The Registrar may destroy a record kept by the Registrar if:
 - (a) it is an original record and it has been recorded and kept in accordance with Article 38(1); or
 - (b) it relates solely to a Foundation that has been dissolved more than six (6) years previously.

39. Registrar may change registration number of Foundation

The Registrar may, for good cause, change the registration number of a Foundation, provided that he must inform the Foundation if he does so.

40. Foundation to make annual return

- (1) A Foundation must make an annual return to the Registrar.
- (2) The annual return must be given in the form and manner prescribed by the Registrar and must contain the information required by the Registrar.
- (3) The annual return must be made up to the Foundation's return date, which shall be each anniversary of the date it received its Licence, or such other date the Registrar considers appropriate, and must be submitted to the Registrar together with the renewal of its Licence but in any event not later than thirty (30) days after the return date.
- (4) A Foundation must pay the prescribed Licence fees to the Registrar at such times determined by the Registrar.

41. Power of the Registrar to refuse documents

- (1) The Registrar may refuse to accept any document delivered under this Law if:
 - (a) it does not comply with this Law or the Regulations;
 - (b) it has not been duly completed;
 - (c) it contains any material error;
 - (d) it is not legible; or
 - (e) is not accompanied by the prescribed fee.
- (2) If the Registrar refuses to accept a document, the Registrar must return it to the person who submitted it together with a notice specifying the grounds upon which the document was refused.
- (3) Subject to Article 41(5), a document refused by the Registrar is deemed not to have been delivered.
- (4) A person who is aggrieved by the refusal of a document by the Registrar may appeal to the Court within thirty (30) days after the date of refusal or such further time as the Court may allow.

- (5) On hearing an appeal under Article 41(4), the Court may confirm the refusal or make such determination in the matter as it sees fit.

PART 7: JUDICIAL AND NON JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS42. Applications to the Court

- (1) Unless specifically stated otherwise, any Person with Sufficient Interest in respect of a Foundation may apply to the Court to make any order or take any action specified in this Part.
- (2) If the Court has to determine whether a person is a Person with Sufficient Interest in respect of a Foundation, the reference in Article 42(1) to a Person with Sufficient Interest, for the purpose of determining that question, shall include such a person.
- (3) Where the Court considers that a person's interest in a Foundation is sufficiently close that the person ought to be treated as a Person with Sufficient Interest, the Court may determine that the person is to be a Person with Sufficient Interest for the purposes of this Law.

43. Power of the Court to order compliance

- (1) If the Court is satisfied that a person has failed to comply with:
 - (a) a requirement of this Law, the Charter or By-laws of a Foundation; or
 - (b) an obligation imposed on the person by this Law, the Charter or By-laws of a Foundation,the Court may, by order, require the person to comply with the requirement or obligation.
- (2) If the Court is satisfied that a Foundation, acting through its Council, has failed to carry out its objects or any of them, the Court may, by order, require the Foundation to do so.
- (3) An order under this Article may specify the action the person or Foundation is required to take.

44. Power of the Court to order amendment of Charter or By-laws

- (1) The Court may order the amendment of the Charter or the By-laws of a Foundation, if the Court is satisfied:
 - (a) that the change will assist the Foundation to administer its property or to attain its objects; or
 - (b) that those objects are no longer attainable and that the change will assist the Foundation to attain objects as near as reasonably possible to those objects.
- (2) If the order is to amend a Foundation's Charter, the thirty (30) day period referred to Article 19(8) to file an amended Charter with the Registrar shall be calculated from the date of the Court order.
- (3) Without limiting Article 44(1), the Court may make an order under Article 44(1) in the event that a Foundation does not have By-laws, or that the relevant provisions of the By-laws cannot be readily ascertained or are otherwise incomplete.

- (4) The Court may, on an application made by or on behalf of a Founder, in its absolute discretion and on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, by order authorise the rectification of any error, defect or omission in the Charter or the By-laws of a Foundation.

45. Power of the Court to give directions

- (1) This Article applies if the Court is satisfied:
- (a) that if it gives a direction it will assist a Foundation to administer its property or to carry out its objects; or
 - (b) that it is otherwise desirable for the Court to give a direction.
- (2) The Court may give a direction as to:
- (a) the meaning and effect of a provision or term in the Charter or By-laws of a Foundation;
 - (b) the manner in which the Council of a Foundation is required to carry out the administration of the Foundation's property or to carry out its objects;
 - (c) the functions of the Council of a Foundation or of any of its members;
 - (c) the functions of any other person appointed under the By-laws of a Foundation;
 - (d) whether a person is a Qualified Recipient of a Foundation;
 - (e) the rights of Qualified Recipients under a Foundation as between themselves or as between themselves and the Foundation; or
 - (f) such other matters as the Court considers relevant to the Foundation, its Charter, its By-laws, the administration of its property or the carrying out of its objects.
- (3) The Court may, in addition to giving a direction under Article 45(2), make such an order as it thinks fit to give effect to the direction.

46. Power of the Court to protect interests under a Foundation

- (1) The Court may in any proceeding under this Part by order appoint a person to protect the interests of a person who the Court is satisfied is, or may become, a Qualified Recipient under a Foundation, where:
- (a) the person is unborn; or
 - (b) the Court is satisfied that the person is unable to act on his, her or its own behalf.
- (2) A person so appointed may represent the person whose interests he has been appointed to protect in any dealing with the Foundation or in any proceeding under this Part.

47. Power of the Court to dismiss or appoint a Registered Agent

- (1) If the Court is satisfied that it is in the interest of a Foundation to do so, it may order:

- (a) the removal of its Registered Agent; and/or
 - (b) the appointment of a Qualified Person to be its Registered Agent.
- (2) The Foundation must give notice of the change of Registered Agent to the Registrar within thirty (30) days of the order of the Court under Article 47(1).

48. Power of the Court to take action on behalf of others

- (1) This Article applies where the Court is satisfied that a person has failed to comply with:
- (a) a requirement of this Law, the Charter or By-laws of a Foundation; or
 - (b) an obligation imposed on the person by this Law, the Charter or By-laws of a Foundation.
- (2) The Court may, by order, comply with the requirement or obligation on behalf of the person who has failed to do so.
- (3) The Court must not do so unless it is satisfied:
- (a) that to do so will assist the Foundation in the administration of its property or the attainment of its objects; or
 - (b) that it is otherwise desirable that it should do so.
- (4) Where the Court does so, its order has the same effect as if it were an action taken by the person required to comply with the requirement or obligation.

49. General power of the Court in respect of orders

- (1) An order made by the Court under this Part in respect of a Foundation may, in particular, provide for the appointment or removal of a person appointed under its By-laws.
- (2) Any order made by the Court under this Part may be made on such terms, and may impose such conditions, as the Court thinks fit.

50. Power to set aside a transfer or disposition of property to a Foundation due to mistake

- (1) In this Article:
- (a) ‘person exercising a power’ means a person who exercises a power to transfer or make other disposition of property to a Foundation on behalf of a Founder; and
 - (b) ‘mistake’ includes (but is not limited to):
 - (i) a mistake as to:
 - (A) the effect of;
 - (B) any consequences of; or
 - (C) any of the advantages to be gained by,

- a transfer or other disposition of property to a Foundation, or the exercise of a power over or in relation to a Foundation or property of a Foundation;
- (ii) a mistake as to a fact existing either before or at the time of, a transfer or other disposition of property to a Foundation, or the exercise of a power over or in relation to a Foundation or property of a Foundation; or
 - (iii) a mistake of law including a law of a foreign jurisdiction; and
- (c) references to a transfer or other disposition of property to a Foundation do not include a testamentary disposition.
- (2) The Court may on the application of any person specified in Article 52(1), and in the circumstances set out in Article 50 (3), declare that a transfer or other disposition of property to a Foundation:
- (a) by a Founder or Contributor acting in person (whether alone or with any other Founder or Contributor); or
 - (b) through a person exercising a power,
- is voidable and:
- (i) has such effect as the Court may determine; or
 - (ii) is of no effect from the time of its exercise.
- (3) The circumstances are where a Founder, Contributor or person exercising a power:
- (a) made a mistake in relation to the transfer or other disposition of property to a Foundation; and
 - (b) would not have made that transfer or other disposition but for that mistake; and
 - (c) and the mistake is of so serious a character as to render it just for the Court to make a declaration under this Article.

51. Power to set aside a transfer or disposition of property to a Foundation exercised by fiduciary power

- (1) In this Article, ‘person exercising a power’ means a person who exercises a power to transfer or make other disposition of property to a Foundation on behalf of a Founder and who owes a fiduciary duty to such Founder in relation to the exercise of his or her power.
- (2) The Court may on the application of any person specified in Article 51(1), and in the circumstances set out in Article 51(3), declare that a transfer or other disposition of property to a Foundation by a Founder or Contributor (whether alone or with any other Founder or Contributor) through a person exercising a power, is voidable and:
- (a) has such effect as the Court may determine; or
 - (b) is of no effect from the time of its exercise.

- (3) The circumstances are where, in relation to the exercise of his or her power, the person exercising a power:
 - (a) failed to take into account any relevant considerations or took into account irrelevant considerations; and
 - (b) would not have exercised the power, or would not have exercised the power in the way it was so exercised, but for that failure to take into account relevant considerations or that taking into account of irrelevant considerations.
- (4) This Article applies whether or not the circumstances set out in Article 51(3) occurred as a result of any lack of care or other fault on the part of the person exercising a power, or on the part of any person giving advice in relation to the exercise of the power.

52. Applications and orders under Articles 50 and 51

- (1) An application under Article 50(2) or 51(2) may be made by any Founder or Contributor or any of his or her personal representatives or successors in title.
- (2) The Court may, consequential upon a declaration made under either of Articles 50 and 51, make such order as it thinks fit.
- (3) Nothing in Articles 50 and 51 shall prejudice:
 - (a) any application for a declaration that a transfer or other disposition of property to a Foundation, or the exercise of any power over or in relation to a Foundation or property of a Foundation, is void or voidable on grounds other than those specified in those Articles; or
 - (b) any personal remedy which may be available against any person.

53. Provisions for facilitating Foundation division or amalgamation

- (1) This Article applies where the members of the Council of one or more Foundations unanimously resolve that the property of a Foundation should be divided amongst two or more Foundations, or that two or more Foundations should be combined into a single Foundation.
- (2) An application may made to the Court under Article 53(1) for the division of the Foundation, or the amalgamation of the Foundations, on notice to all persons with sufficient interest in any Foundation affected by the making of such an order.
- (3) On any application under Article 53(1), the Court may make such orders as it considers appropriate to facilitate the division or amalgamation.
- (4) Each of the Foundations affected by any order of the Court shall give details of the change of status of the Foundations to the Registrar in such manner as he may require.
- (5) The Registrar shall make such entries in the Register as are required to give effect to the order of the Court and ensure any new or amalgamated Foundation is correctly registered.

54. Arbitration of Foundation disputes

- (1) Where the Charter or By-laws of a Foundation provide that any dispute or Administrative Question arising between any of the parties in relation to the Foundation shall be submitted to arbitration, that provision shall, for all purposes under the Arbitration Law have effect as between those parties as if were an arbitration agreement and as if those parties were parties to that agreement.
- (2) Where the Charter or By-laws of a Foundation do not provide that any dispute or Administration Question arising in relation to the Foundation shall be submitted to arbitration but the parties to that dispute agree in writing to have it resolved by arbitration, that agreement shall, for all purposes under the Arbitration Law, have effect as between those parties as if it were an arbitration agreement.
- (3) The Arbitration Law shall apply to an arbitration under this Law in accordance with the provisions of Schedule 2.
- (4) The Court may make such orders in relation to an arbitration or possible arbitration which supplement or vary the application of Schedule 2 as may be in the opinion of the Court appropriate in the circumstances.

55. Powers of the arbitral tribunal

- (1) This Article shall apply except to the extent otherwise provided in the Charter or By-laws of a Foundation.
- (2) The arbitral tribunal may, in addition to all other powers of the tribunal, at any stage in an arbitration under this Law, exercise all the powers of the Court (whether arising by law, including this Law, under the inherent jurisdiction of the Court or otherwise) in relation to the administration of a Foundation or the rights of any party in relation to the Foundation.
- (3) The arbitral tribunal has the same powers to appoint a person to represent the interests of any person (including a minor, a person unborn or unascertained) or class of person in an arbitration concerning a Foundation as the Court has in relation to proceedings before the Court.

56. Provision of information by a Foundation

- (1) A Person with Sufficient Interest in a Foundation may make written requests to the Foundation and the Foundation must comply as soon as practicable after receipt of such requests with full and accurate information in respect of any of the following:
 - (a) the financial statements of the Foundation;
 - (b) the property of the Foundation;
 - (c) the manner in which the Foundation's property are being administered;
 - (d) the way in which the Foundation is carrying out its objects; and
 - (e) the administration of the Foundation, provided that any such requests shall be subject to Article 56(2).

- (2) A Foundation is not required to provide any person with information about the Foundation where the provision of that information is prohibited under the Foundation's Charter or By-laws, unless the obligation to make such disclosure is imposed by applicable law or an order of the Court.

- (3) If Article 56(2) applies, the person making the request may apply to the Court under Article 42 for an order authorising or requiring the provision of the requested information, in which case it must be shown to the Court that the provision of the information is necessary or expedient to enable the determination as to whether or not:
- (a) the Foundation is carrying out its objects;
 - (b) the Council of the Foundation is carrying out its functions;
 - (c) the property of the Foundation are being properly administered; and
 - (d) the Foundation is being properly administered.
- (4) Article 56(2) does not affect any other obligation of a Foundation to supply information about the Foundation under this Law or any other applicable law.

PART 8: CONTINUATION OF FOUNDATIONS AND COMPANIES57. Continuation of a Foreign Foundation in the DIFC

- (1) A Foreign Foundation may, if not prohibited in terms of its founding documents or under the laws of the jurisdiction under which it is organised, apply to the Registrar for a certificate of continuance under this Law.
- (2) An application made under Article 57(1) shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the Registrar and be accompanied by a Charter of Continuance, and, if the application does not propose the appointment of a Registered Agent, the By-laws (if any) that will apply to the Foreign Foundation upon its continuance as a Foundation under this Law.
- (3) A Charter of Continuance may, without so stating in the document, effect any amendment to the organisational instruments of the Foreign Foundation that applies for continuance under this Article, if the amendment:
 - (a) is authorised in accordance with the law applicable to the Foreign Foundation before continuance under this Law; and
 - (b) is an amendment that a Foundation is entitled to make under this Law.

58. Charter of Continuance for Foreign Foundations

- (1) The Charter of Continuance of a Foreign Foundation shall be written in the English language.
- (2) The Charter of Continuance of a Foreign Foundation shall:
 - (a) be signed by all of the members of the Council or substantially equivalent officers of the Foreign Foundation;
 - (b) state the name of the Foreign Foundation and the name under which it will be continued in the DIFC;
 - (c) state the jurisdiction under which it is established;
 - (d) state the date on which it was established; and
 - (e) comply with such other requirements under this Law as apply to the Charter of a Foundation.

59. Certificate of continuance for Foreign Foundations

- (1) Upon receipt of the Charter of Continuance and, if applicable, the proposed By-laws, the Registrar shall if he is satisfied that Articles 57 and 58 have been complied with, issue a certificate of continuance in respect of the Foreign Foundation which shall also serve as the certificate of establishment of the Foreign Foundation as a Foundation in the DIFC.
- (2) On the date shown in the certificate of continuance:
 - (a) the Foreign Foundation shall become a Foundation in the DIFC to which this Law shall apply as if it had been established under this Law; and
 - (b) the Charter of Continuance shall become the Charter thereof.

60. Preservation of a Foundation.

When a Foreign Foundation is continued as a Foundation in the DIFC under this Law:

- (a) the property of the Foreign Foundation becomes the property of the Foundation;
- (b) the Foundation continues to be liable for the obligations of the Foreign Foundation;
- (c) an existing cause of action, claim or liability to prosecution is unaffected;
- (d) a civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding pending by or against the Foreign Foundation may be continued by or against the Foundation; and
- (e) a conviction against, or ruling, order or judgment against or in favour of, the Foreign Foundation may be enforced against the Foundation.

61. Cancellation of registration

(1) Where a Foreign Foundation is registered as a Foundation under this Part, the Foundation shall, as soon as possible (but not exceeding a period of three (3) months), file with the Registrar any certificate or other document issued under the law of the place in which the Foundation has ceased to be established and registered evidencing the fact that the Foundation has ceased to be established and registered under that law.

(2) If the Court is satisfied that:

- (a) a Foreign Foundation has been registered as a Foundation pursuant to the provisions of this Part; and
- (b) the Foundation continues to be established or registered under the law of any place outside the DIFC, the Court may, in its absolute discretion on the application of:

- (i) the Foundation or any Person with Sufficient Interest or creditor; or
- (ii) the Registrar, make an order for the removal of the Foundation's name from the Register.

(3) An order under Article 61(2) may be made subject to such terms and conditions and such penalty as the Court thinks fit.

62. Foundation leaving the DIFC.

Subject to Article 63, a Foundation may:

- (a) if it is authorised by unanimous resolution of the members of its Council; and
- (b) if it is established to the satisfaction of the Registrar that the Foundation's proposed continuance in another jurisdiction will not adversely affect the Foundation's creditors, apply to the appropriate official or public body of the other jurisdiction to be continued as an entity in the other jurisdiction as if it had been established under the laws of the other jurisdiction.

63. Conditions applicable to a Foundation leaving the DIFC

A Foundation may not apply for continuance in another jurisdiction, nor may it be continued under the laws of another jurisdiction, as an entity established in that other jurisdiction pursuant to

Article 64 unless the laws of that other jurisdiction provide that:

- (a) the property of the Foundation continues to be the property of the entity;
- (b) the entity continues to be liable for the obligations of the Foundation;
- (c) any existing cause of action, claim or liability to prosecution is unaffected;
- (d) a civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding pending by or against the Foundation may be continued by or against the entity; and
- (e) a conviction against, or ruling, order or judgment against or in favour of, the Foundation may be enforced against the entity.

64. Discontinuance and effect.

- (1) Upon receipt of a notice satisfactory to him that a Foundation that has made an application under Article 62 has been continued as an entity under the laws of another jurisdiction, the Registrar must file the notice and issue a certificate of discontinuance in accordance with this Law.
- (2) After a certificate of discontinuance is issued under Article 64(1) in respect of a Foundation that is continued as an entity under the laws of another jurisdiction, the Foundation's name shall be removed from the Register, but such removal does not affect the application of any foreign law referred to in Article 63.

65. Recognised Foreign Foundations

- (1) A Foreign Foundation which wishes to conduct operations within the DIFC may apply for a Licence to be a Recognised Foreign Foundation in the DIFC for the purposes of this Law.
- (2) An application made under Article 65(1) shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the Registrar and accompanied by the prescribed fee.
- (3) A Recognised Foreign Foundation must appoint a Registered Agent and have a registered office in the DIFC, and comply with any conditions in its Licence.
- (4) A Recognised Foreign Foundation may not carry out any commercial activities, except those necessary for, and ancillary or incidental to, its objects.
- (5) Articles 15, 16, 24, 35, 36, Part 5 and Articles 144 to 150 of this Law shall apply to a Recognised Foreign Foundation.

66. Continuation of company as DIFC Foundation

- (1) A private company incorporated under the Companies Law may, if authorized by a unanimous resolution of all of its shareholders, apply to the Registrar for a certificate of continuance under this Law.
- (2) An application made under Article 66(1) shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the Registrar and be accompanied by a Charter of Continuance, and, if the application does not propose the appointment of a Registered Agent, the By-laws (if any) that will apply to the company upon its continuance as a Foundation under this Law.
- (3) A Charter of Continuance may, without so stating in the document, effect any amendment to the memorandum and articles of association of the company that applies for continuance under this Article if the amendment is an amendment that a Foundation is entitled to make under this Law.

67. Charter of Continuance of a company

- (1) The Charter of Continuance of a company shall be written in the English language.
- (2) The Charter of Continuance of a company shall:
 - (a) be signed by all of the directors of the company;
 - (b) state the name of the company and the name under which it will be continued in the DIFC as a DIFC Foundation;
 - (c) state the date on which it was established; and
 - (d) comply with such other requirements under this Law as apply to the Charter of a Foundation.

68. Certificate of continuance of a company

- (1) Upon receipt of the Charter of Continuance and, if applicable, the proposed By-laws, the Registrar shall if he is satisfied that Articles 66 and 67 have been complied with, issue a certificate of continuance in respect of the company which shall also serve as the certificate of establishment of the company as a Foundation in the DIFC.
- (2) On the date shown in the certificate of continuance:
 - (a) the company shall become a Foundation in the DIFC to which this Law shall apply as if it had been established under this Law;
 - (b) the Charter of Continuance shall become the Charter thereof in the place of its memorandum and articles of association; and
 - (c) the company shall cease to be registered as a company in the DIFC.

69. Preservation of a company as a Foundation.

When a company is continued as a Foundation in the DIFC under this Law:

- (a) the property of the company becomes the property of the Foundation;
- (b) the Foundation continues to be liable for the obligations of the company;
- (c) an existing cause of action, claim or liability to prosecution is unaffected;
