 - (c) join in a demand for a poll.
- (3) In every notice calling a meeting of the Company there shall appear with reasonable prominence a statement that a Shareholder entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint a proxy or, where that is allowed, one or more proxies to attend and vote instead of him, and that a proxy need not also be a Shareholder.

71. Demand for poll

- (1) A provision contained in a Company's articles is void in so far as it would have the effect either:
 - (a) of excluding the right to demand a poll at a General Meeting, or at a meeting of any class of Shares on a question (other than the election of the chairman of the meeting or the adjournment of the meeting); or
 - (b) of making ineffective a demand for a poll on any such question which is made either:
 - (i) by not less than five Shareholders having the right to vote on the question; or
 - (ii) by a Shareholder or Shareholders representing not less than five per cent of the total number of Shares having the right to a vote on the question.
- (2) The instrument appointing a proxy to vote at such a meeting is deemed also to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll; and for the purposes of Paragraph (1) a demand by a person as proxy for a Shareholder is the same as a demand by the Shareholder.
- (3) On a poll taken at such a meeting, a Shareholder entitled to more than one vote need not, if he votes (in person or by proxy), use all his votes in the same way.

72. Minutes and examination of minute books

- (1) Every Company shall cause minutes of all proceedings at General Meetings, meetings of any class of Shares, meetings of its Directors and of committees of Directors to be entered in books kept for that purpose, and the names of the Directors present at each such meeting shall be recorded in the minutes.
- (2) Any such minutes, if purporting to be signed by the chairman of the meeting at which the proceedings took place, or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting, is evidence of the proceedings.
- (3) Where minutes have been made in accordance with this Article then, until the contrary is proved, the meeting is deemed duly held and convened, and all proceedings which took place at the meeting are deemed to have duly taken place.
- (4) The books containing the minutes of a General Meeting or of a meeting of the holders of a class of Shares shall be kept at the Company's registered office, and shall during business hours be open to examination by a Shareholder without charge.
- (5) A Shareholder may require, on submission to the Company of a written request and on payment of such reasonable sum as the Company may require, a copy of any such minutes (provided that the holders of a class of Shares shall not be entitled to require a copy of minutes of a meeting of the holders of any other class of Shares) and the Company shall, within 7 days after the receipt of the request and the payment, cause the copy so required to be made available at the registered office of the Company for collection during business hours.

- (6) In the case of a refusal or default, the Registrar may make an order compelling an immediate inspection of the books in respect of all proceedings of General Meetings, or meetings of the holders of a class of Shares or directing that the copies required be furnished to the persons requiring them.

CHAPTER 9 – PROTECTION OF MINORITIES IN TAKEOVERS

73. Regulations, waiver and modification

- (1) The Board of Directors of the DIFCA may, without limiting powers conferred upon it elsewhere under the Law, make Regulations extending, waiving or modifying the application of provisions of this Chapter in relation to different cases or classes of cases.
- (2) The provisions of this Chapter are subject to Article 154.

74. Takeover Offers

- (1) In this Part, “a takeover offer” means an offer to acquire all the Shares, or all the Shares of any class or classes, in a Company (other than Shares which at the date of the offer are already held by the offeror), being an offer on terms which are the same in relation to all the Shares to which the offer relates or, where those Shares include Shares of different classes, in relation to all the Shares of each class.
- (2) In Paragraph (1), “Shares” means Shares which have been allotted on the date of the offer but a takeover offer may include Shares that are subsequently allotted before a date specified in or determined in accordance with the terms of the offer.
- (3) The terms offered in relation to any Shares shall for the purposes of this Article be treated as being the same in relation to all the Shares or, as the case may be, all the Shares of a class to which the offer relates notwithstanding any variation permitted by Paragraph (4).
- (4) A variation is permitted by this Paragraph where:
 - (a) the law of a country or territory outside DIFC precludes the acceptance of an offer in the form or the forms specified, or precludes it except after compliance by the offeror with conditions with which it is unable to comply or which it regards as unduly onerous; and
 - (b) the variation is such that the persons by whom the acceptance of an offer in that form is precluded are able to accept an offer in a different form but of substantially equivalent value.
- (5) The reference in Paragraph (1) to Shares already held by the offeror includes a reference to Shares which he has contracted to acquire (which term shall include Shares which the offeror has an unconditional option to acquire) but that shall not be construed as including Shares which are the subject of a contract binding the holder to accept the offer when it is made, being a contract entered into by the holder for nothing other than a promise by the offeror to make the offer.

- (6) Where the terms of an offer make provision for their revision and for acceptances on the previous terms to be treated as acceptances on the revised terms, the revision shall not be regarded for the purposes of this Part as the making of a fresh offer and references in this Part to the date of the offer shall accordingly be construed as references to the date on which the original offer was made.
- (7) In this Part “the offeror” means, subject to Article 80, the person making a takeover offer and “the Company” means the Company whose Shares are the subject of the offer.

75. Right of offeror to buy out minority Shareholders

- (1) If, in a case in which a takeover offer does not relate to Shares of different classes, the offeror has by virtue of acceptances of the offer acquired or contracted to acquire not less than nine-tenths in value of the Shares to which the offer relates he may within 120 days of the close of the takeover offer give notice to the holder of any Shares to which the offer relates which the offeror has not acquired or contracted to acquire that he desires to acquire those Shares.
- (2) If, in a case in which a takeover offer relates to Shares of different classes, the offeror has by virtue of acceptances of the offer acquired or contracted to acquire not less than nine-tenths in value of the Shares of any class to which the offer relates, he may within 120 days of the close of the takeover offer give notice to the holder of any Shares of that class which the offeror has not acquired or contracted to acquire that he desires to acquire those Shares.
- (3) No notice shall be given under Paragraphs (1) or (2) unless the offeror has acquired or contracted to acquire the Shares necessary to satisfy the minimum specified in those Paragraphs before the end of the period of four months beginning with the date of the offer; and no such notice shall be given after the end of the period of two months beginning with the date on which he has acquired or contracted to acquire Shares which satisfy that minimum.
- (4) When the offeror gives the first notice in relation to an offer he shall send a copy of it to the Company together with a declaration by him stating that the conditions for the giving of the notice are satisfied. A person who makes such a declaration must have reasonable grounds for believing it to be true.
- (5) Where the offeror is a body corporate (whether or not a Company within the meaning of this Law) the declaration shall be signed by a Director.
- (6) If a person is proceeded against in respect of an alleged contravention for failing to send a copy of a notice as required by Paragraph (4) it is a defence for him to prove that he took reasonable steps for securing compliance with that Paragraph.
- (7) Where during the period within which a takeover offer can be accepted the offeror acquires or contracts to acquire any of the Shares to which the offer relates but otherwise than by virtue of acceptances of the offer, then if:
 - (a) the value of that for which they are acquired or contracted to be acquired (“the acquisition value”) does not at that time exceed the value of that which is receivable by an acceptor under the terms of the offer; or

- (b) those terms are subsequently revised so that when the revision is announced the acquisition value, at the time mentioned in Paragraph (a), no longer exceeds the value of that which is receivable by an acceptor under those terms, the offeror shall be treated for the purposes of this Article as having acquired or contracted to acquire those Shares by virtue of acceptances of the offer; but in any other case those Shares shall be treated as excluded from those to which the offer relates.

76. Effect of notice under Article 75

- (1) The following provisions shall, subject to Article 79, have effect where a notice is given in respect of any Shares under Article 75.
- (2) The offeror shall be entitled and bound to acquire those Shares on the terms of the offer.
- (3) Where the terms of an offer are such as to give the holder of any Shares a choice of payment for his Shares the notice shall give particulars of the choice and state:

- (a) that the holder of the Shares may within six weeks from the date of the notice indicate his choice by a written communication sent to the offeror at an address specified in the notice; and
- (b) which payment specified in the offer is to be taken as applying in default of his indicating a choice as aforesaid, and the terms of the offer mentioned in Paragraph (2) shall be determined accordingly.

- (4) Paragraph (3) applies whether or not any time-limit or other conditions applicable to the choice under the terms of the offer can still be complied with; and if the payment chosen by the holder of the Shares:
 - (a) is not cash and the offeror is no longer able to make that payment; or
 - (b) was to have been made by a third party who is no longer bound or able to make that payment;

the payment shall be taken to consist of an amount of cash payable by the offeror which at the date of the notice is equivalent to the chosen payment.

- (5) At the end of six weeks from the date of the notice the offeror shall forthwith:
 - (a) send a copy of the notice to the Company; and
 - (b) make payment to the Company on behalf of the holders for the Shares to which the notice relates.

- (6) The copy of the notice sent to the Company under Paragraph (5)(a) shall be accompanied by an instrument of transfer executed on behalf of the Shareholder by a person appointed by the offeror; and on receipt of that instrument the Company shall register the offeror as the holder of those Shares.

- (7) Where the payment referred to in Paragraph (5)(b) is to be made in Shares or Securities to be issued by the offeror, the reference in that Paragraph to the making of payment shall be construed as a reference to the issuance of the Shares or Securities to the Company on behalf of the holders.
- (8) Any sum received by a Company under Paragraph (5)(b) and any other payment received under that Paragraph shall not be the property of the Company but shall be held by the Company on behalf of the person entitled to the Shares in respect of which the sum or other payment was received.
- (9) Any sum received by a Company under Paragraph (5)(b) and any dividend or other sum accruing from any other payment received by a Company under that Paragraph, shall be paid into a separate bank account, being an account the balance on which bears interest at an appropriate rate and can be withdrawn by such notice (if any) as is appropriate.

77. Right of minority Shareholder to be bought out by offeror

- (1) If in a case in which a takeover offer does not relate to Shares of different classes, at any time before the end of the period within which the offer can be accepted:
 - (a) the offeror has by virtue of acceptances of the offer acquired or contracted to acquire some (but not all) of the Shares to which the offer relates; and
 - (b) those Shares, with or without any other Shares in the Company which he has acquired or contracted to acquire, amount to not less than nine-tenths in value of all the Shares in the Company;

the holder of any Shares to which the offer relates who has not accepted the offer may by a written communication addressed to the offeror require him to acquire those Shares.
- (2) If a takeover offer relates to Shares of any class or classes and at any time before the end of the period within which the offer can be accepted:
 - (a) the offeror has by virtue of acceptances of the offer acquired or contracted to acquire some (but not all) of the Shares of any class to which the offer relates; and
 - (b) those Shares, with or without any other Shares of that class which he has acquired or contracted to acquire, amount to not less than nine-tenths in value of all the Shares of that class;

the holder of any Shares of that class who has not accepted the offer may by a written communication addressed to the offeror require him to acquire those Shares.
- (3) Within one month of the time specified in Paragraph (1) or, as the case may be, Paragraph (2) the offeror shall give any Shareholder who has not accepted the offer notice of the rights that are exercisable by him under that Paragraph; and if the notice is given before the end of the period mentioned in that Paragraph it shall state that the offer is still open for acceptance.
- (4) A notice under Paragraph (3) may specify a period for the exercise of the rights, conferred by this Article and in that event the rights shall not be exercisable after the end of that period; but no such period shall end less than three months after the end of the period within which the offer can be accepted.

- (5) Paragraph (3) does not apply if the offeror has given the Shareholder notice in respect of the Shares in question under Article 75.
- (6) If the offeror fails to comply with Paragraph (3) he and, if the offeror is a Company, every officer of the Company who is in default or to whose neglect the failure is attributable, commits a contravention.
- (7) If an offeror other than a Company is proceeded against in respect of an alleged contravention for failing to comply with Paragraph (3) it is a defence for him to prove that he took all reasonable steps for securing compliance with that Paragraph.

78. Effect of requirement under Article 77

- (1) The following provisions shall, subject to Article 79, have effect where a Shareholder exercises his rights in respect of any Shares under this Article.
- (2) The offeror shall be entitled and bound to acquire those Shares on the terms of the offer or on such other terms as may be agreed.
- (3) Where the terms of an offer are such as to give the holder of Shares a choice of payment for his Shares the holder of the Shares may indicate his choice when requiring the offeror to acquire them and the notice given to the holder under Article 77(3):

- (a) shall give particulars of the choice and of the rights conferred by this Paragraph; and
- (b) may state which payment specified in the offer is to be taken as applying in default of his indicating a choice;

and the terms of the offer mentioned in Paragraph (2) shall be determined accordingly.

- (4) Paragraph (3) applies whether or not any time limit or other conditions applicable to the choice under the terms of the offer can still be complied with; and if the payment chosen by the holder of the Shares:
 - (a) is not cash and the offeror is no longer able to make that payment; or
 - (b) was to have been made by a third party who is no longer bound or able to make that payment;

the payment shall be taken to consist of an amount of cash payable by the offeror which at the date when the holder of the Shares requires the offeror to acquire them is equivalent to the chosen payment.

79. Applications to the Court

- (1) Where a notice is given under Article 75 to the holder of any Shares, the Court may, on an application made by the holder within six weeks from the date on which the notice was given:

- (a) order that the offeror shall not be entitled and bound to acquire the Shares; or
- (b) specify terms of acquisition different from those of the offer.

The Court will not entertain an application made outside the established term.

- (2) If an application to the Court under Paragraph (1) is pending at the end of the period mentioned in Article 76(5), then, unless otherwise ordered by the Court, that Article shall not have effect until the application has been disposed of.
- (3) Where the holder of any Shares exercises his rights under Article 77 the Court may, on an application made by him or the offeror, order that the terms on which the offeror is entitled and bound to acquire the Shares shall be such as the Court thinks fit.
- (4) No order for costs or expenses shall be made against a Shareholder making an application under Paragraphs (1) or (3) unless the Court considers:
 - (a) that the application was unnecessary, improper or vexatious; or
 - (b) there has been unreasonable conduct on his part in conducting the proceedings on the application.
- (5) Where a takeover offer has not been accepted to the extent necessary for entitling the offeror to give notices under Article 75(1) or (2) the Court may, on the application of the offeror, make an order authorising him to give notices under that Article if satisfied:
 - (a) that the offeror has after reasonable enquiry been unable to trace one or more of the persons holding Shares to which the offer relates;
 - (b) that the Shares which the offeror has acquired or contracted to acquire by virtue of acceptances of the offer, together with the Shares held by the person or persons mentioned in Sub-Paragraph (a), amount to not less than the minimum specified in that Article; and
 - (c) that the terms offered are fair and reasonable;

but the Court shall not make an order under this Article unless it considers that it is just and equitable to do so having regard, in particular, to the number of Shareholders who have been traced but who have not accepted the offer.

80. Joint offers

- (1) A takeover offer may be made by two or more persons jointly and in that event this Part has effect with the following modifications.
- (2) The conditions for the exercise of the rights conferred by Articles 75 and 77 shall be satisfied by the joint offerors acquiring or contracting to acquire the necessary Shares jointly (as respects acquisitions by virtue of acceptances of the offer) and either jointly or separately (in other cases); and, subject to the following provisions, the rights and obligations of the offeror under those Articles and Articles 76 and 78 shall be respectively joint rights and joint and several obligations of the joint offerors.

- (3) It shall be a sufficient compliance with any provision of those Articles requiring or authorising a notice or other document to be given or sent by or to the joint offerors that it is given or sent by or to any of them; but the declaration required by Article 75(4) shall be made by all of them and, in the case of a joint offeror being a Company, signed by a Director of that Company.
- (4) In Article 74, Article 76(7) and Article 81 references to the offeror shall be construed as references to the joint offerors or any of them.
- (5) In Article 76(6) references to the offeror shall be construed as references to the joint offerors or such of them as they may determine.
- (6) In Article 76(4)(a) references to the offeror being no longer able to make the relevant payment shall be construed as references to none of the joint offerors being able to do so.
- (7) In Article 79 references to the offeror shall be construed as references to the joint offerors except that any application under Paragraph 79(3) or (5) may be made by any of them and the reference in Sub-Paragraph 79(5)(a) to the offeror having been unable to trace one or more of the persons holding Shares shall be construed as a reference to none of the offerors having been able to do so.

81. Associates

- (1) The requirement of Article 74(1) that a takeover offer must extend to all the Shares, or all the Shares of any class or classes, in a Company shall be regarded as satisfied notwithstanding that the offer does not extend to Shares which associates of the offeror hold or have contracted to acquire; but, subject to Article 74(2), Shares which any such associate holds or has contracted to acquire, whether at the time when the offer is made or subsequently, shall be disregarded for the purposes of any reference in this Part to the Shares to which a takeover offer relates.
- (2) Where during the period within which a takeover offer can be accepted any associate of the offeror acquires or contracts to acquire any of the Shares to which the offer relates, then, if the condition specified in Article 75(7)(a) or (b) is satisfied as respects those Shares they shall be treated for the purpose of that Article as Shares to which the offer relates.
- (3) In Article 77(1)(b) and Article 77(2)(b) the reference to Shares which the offeror has acquired or contracted to acquire shall include a reference to Shares which any associate of his has acquired or contracted to acquire.
- (4) In this Article, “associate”, in relation to an offeror, means one or more of the following:
 - (a) a nominee of the offeror;
 - (b) a holding company, subsidiary or fellow subsidiary of the offeror or a nominee of such a holding company, subsidiary or fellow subsidiary; or
 - (c) a body corporate in which the offeror is substantially interested.
- (5) For the purposes of Paragraph (4)(b) a Company is a fellow subsidiary of another body corporate if both are subsidiaries of the same body corporate but neither is a subsidiary of the other.

- (6) For the purposes of Paragraph (4)(c) an offeror has a substantial interest in a body corporate if:
- (a) that body corporate or its directors are accustomed to act in accordance with his directions or instructions; or
 - (b) he is entitled to exercise or control the exercise of one-third or more of the voting power at general meetings of that body corporate; or
 - (c) he owns or controls directly or indirectly more than 20 per cent of the share capital of that body corporate.
- (7) Where the offeror is an individual his associates shall also include his spouse and any child or step-child of his.

PART 8: LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY

82. Application of this Part 8.

This Part applies exclusively to Limited Liability Companies. Wherever the word “Company” appears in this Part, it shall be construed as a Limited Liability Company.

- (4) At the time of incorporation of a Limited Liability Company its authorised share capital must be fully subscribed and paid for.
- (5) Each Member will hold only one Membership Interest of each class of Membership Interest. When a Member makes a new subscription or acquires an increased interest in the share capital of the Company from another Member, the value of his Membership Interest shall be increased accordingly, provided both Membership Interests are of the same class. If the Membership Interests are of a different class, then each Membership Interest will be registered separately in the Members' register.
- (6) Unless otherwise provided in the Company's articles, the allocation of profits, losses and distributions of a Limited Liability Company will be made proportionally to the value of each Membership Interest.

89. Transfer of Membership Interests

- (1) Subject to Paragraph (3), the transfer of a Membership Interest (in whole or in part) or the admission of a new Member will only be valid if authorised by a Special Resolution, unless the articles require a unanimous resolution.
- (2) When a Membership Interest will be transferred to a person that is not a Member of the Company, the existing Members will have the right of first refusal to acquire the Membership Interest to be transferred, in proportion to their Membership Interest in the Company's share capital, on the same terms as to the approved transferee. The Members will have 15 days to exercise such right of first refusal from the date the Special Resolution authorising the transfer was adopted; unless otherwise provided in such Special Resolution.
- (3) The transfer of a Membership Interest by inheritance or otherwise by operation of law, including any transfer pursuant to any order made by a court of competent jurisdiction, shall not require a Special Resolution, unless the articles provide for the dissolution of the Company upon the death of one of the Members, the liquidation of the Membership Interest of the deceased Member or otherwise.

90. Reduction of share capital

- (1) A Company if authorised by a Resolution and its articles may reduce its share capital in any way on such terms as it may decide, and in particular, by:
 - (a) either with or without extinguishing or reducing liability on any of its Membership Interests, cancelling any paid up share capital that is lost or unrepresented by available assets; or
 - (b) either with or without extinguishing or reducing liability of any of its Membership Interests, paying off any paid up share capital that is in excess of the requirements of the Company.
- (2) No Company shall reduce the amount of its share capital by virtue of Paragraph (1) unless it complies with the following:
 - (a) at a date not more than 30 days and not less than 15 days before the date from which the reduction of the share capital is to have effect, the Company shall cause a notice to be published in the appointed newspapers stating:

- (i) the amount of the share capital as last previously determined by the Company;
 - (ii) the amount to which the share capital is to be reduced; and
 - (iii) the date from which the reduction is to have effect.
 - (b) on the date from which the reduction is to have effect a certificate shall be signed by any one of the Managers of the Company declaring either:
 - (i) that on that date the Company is solvent; or
 - (ii) that all the creditors of the Company on that date have consented to the reduction.
- (3) Where a Company reduces the amount of its share capital, it shall file within 30 days after the date from which the reduction has effect, a copy of the publications referred to in Paragraph (2)(a) and the certificate referred to in Paragraph (2)(b) with the Registrar stating that this Article has been duly complied with.

91. Redemption of Membership Interests

The redemption of a Membership Interest shall not be allowed, unless as provided in the articles and provided the redemption is carried out from net profits of the Company that may validly be used for payment of dividends or with excess share capital.

92. Capital Increase

- (1) A Company may increase its share capital if authorized by a Resolution.
- (2) Where a Company proposes to increase its share capital, the Members shall have a preferential right, in proportion to their Membership Interests, to increase their Membership Interests, unless otherwise provided in the articles or the Resolution approving the share capital increase.

93. Restrictions on dividends and distributions

- (1) A Company may pay a dividend or make a distribution at any time if:
 - (a) the dividend will be paid, or the distribution will be made, out of profits and/or surplus of the Company, as shown in the accounts of the Company prepared:
 - (i) as at the end of the last financial year in accordance with Article 103(2); or
 - (ii) where a dividend or distribution is made which is other than a Year End Dividend or Distribution, as at the end of such period as is sufficient to enable the Members to form a reasonable view as to the amount of the profits and/or surplus from which the dividend will be paid or the distribution will be made, in a manner consistent with Articles 103(2)(a) and (b); and

- (b) a Resolution has been passed immediately prior to the payment of the dividend or the making of the distribution, on reasonable grounds, that the Company will, immediately after the dividend is paid or the distribution is made, be able to pay its debts as they become due in the normal course of business.
- (2) In this Part, “distribution” means every description of distribution of a Company’s assets to its Members, whether in cash or in specie.

94. Consequences of Unlawful Distribution

Where a distribution, or part of a distribution, made by a Company to any of its Members is made in contravention of Article 93 and, at the time of the distribution, the Member knows or has reasonable grounds for believing that it is so made, he is liable to repay it, or that part of it, to the Company or, in the case of a distribution made otherwise than in cash, to pay the Company a sum equal to the value of the distribution, or that part, at that time.

95. Members’ Register

- (1) Limited Liability Companies shall maintain an up to date register of Members in which:
 - (a) the name;
 - (b) date of birth or incorporation;
 - (c) nationality;
 - (d) address; and
 - (e) value of Membership Interest;of each Member shall be recorded.
- (2) The particulars of the transfer of Membership Interests shall also be recorded in the Members’ register and a transfer shall not be valid before the date such transfer is recorded therein.
- (3) The Members’ register shall, during business hours, be open to the inspection of any Member of the Company without charge, and of any other person on payment of such reasonable sum as the Company may require, at the registered office of the Company, or if kept at the offices of an agent that maintains the Members’ register, then the Company shall require that the register be open for inspection during business hours at such location.
- (4) In the case of a refusal of inspection of the register, the Registrar may issue a direction requiring the Company to provide immediate inspection of the register by a Member or any other person.

96. Administration of a Limited Liability Company

- (1) A Limited Liability Company shall be managed by one or more Managers, which may be Members or any third party appointed by the Members.
- (2) The Managers may be appointed for a limited or undetermined term.

- (3) Unless otherwise provided in the articles, the Members may, pursuant to a Resolution, remove any Manager at any time.
- (4) If a Company does not appoint Managers, all the Members shall collectively be considered Managers of the Company.

97. Managers' Liability

- (1) The Members may, by Resolution, bring legal action on behalf of the Company against any Manager, for the recovery of the Company's assets.
- (2) An individual Member may also bring legal action against a Manager, unless the Members have absolved the Manager from liability by way of a Special Resolution.
- (3) A Company's creditor may bring legal action against a Manager, only through a Liquidation Committee established as per the DIFC Insolvency Law 3 of 2009 as may be amended or restated from time to time.

- (1) Unless otherwise provided in the articles, the Manager's authority may be overridden by a Resolution.
- (2) Subject to special voting rights attached to certain classes of Membership Interests, each Member shall have a right to vote at a Members' meeting, and shall have a vote valued proportionally to the percentage his Membership Interest represents in the Company's share capital.
- (3) Members' meetings may be called by the Managers or by a Member or Members whose Membership Interests represent more than one third of the Company's share capital.
- (4) The procedures for calling and conducting a Members' General Meeting shall be as set out in the articles.
- (5) If a Company fails to call a General Meeting in accordance with Paragraph (3), the Registrar may, on the application of a Manager or Member call or direct the calling of a General Meeting.

PART 9: ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

CHAPTER 1 – GENERAL

This Part does not apply in relation to any Company which is an Authorised Firm, Authorised Market Institution, Recognised Body or Recognised Member under the Regulatory Law 2004 as amended from time to time.

100. Waiver and Modification of Regulations

- (1) The Board of Directors of the DIFCA may, without limiting powers conferred upon it elsewhere under the Law, make Regulations extending, waiving or modifying the application of provisions of this Part in relation to different cases or classes of case.
- (2) In particular, such Regulations may provide for:
 - (a) the inclusion in accounts of group accounts dealing with the affairs of a Company and its subsidiaries;
 - (b) the inclusion in accounts of a report by the Directors dealing with such matters as may be specified;
 - (c) the accounting principles to be applied in the preparation of accounts, including:
 - (i) the creation or adoption of one or more accounting standards or codes of practice;
 - (ii) which of, and the manner in which, such accounting standards may apply to particular Companies and in particular circumstances; or
 - (iii) periods in which an accounting standard may apply; and
